A boy – who has asked for a hot dog with "everything on it" – holds a bun piled sky high with a basketball hoop, a snake, a hat, an umbrella, you name it. "If you look at [Silverstein's] other books, the title was part of the artwork," Markiet explains. "To him, typography and layout was part of the whole. The art is wonderful.

Selected poems from Every Thing On It, by Shel Silverstein "The Ball Game" The elephant played second base, And the laughing hyena played third. The two little leeches sat out in the bleachers, Quite shocked by the language they heard. The kangaroo leapt and the crocodile wept Because they would not let him play.
