A Great-Grandmother retires and works to fulfill a lifetime dream of riding solo by motorcycle in all of the beautiful United States of America. After visiting nearly half of the states, she decides to make the big trip: to visit the rest of the continental states and North to Alaska. Her diary of the preparations, the actual ride, problems encountered by inclement weather, fire, and mechanical problems, the wonderful friends and encouragement of total strangers, and the great beauty of our country, all add to the thrilling adventures of this trek to Alaska and back, declaring this the greatest of all trips.
